Fred Cook and Colonel Jim Williams in Altercation at New Orleans.

FRED COOK GETS INTO A FIGHT

resented Remarks Made by Captain Jim Williams About Jockey Nichol.

WILLIAMS VERY BELLIGERENT.

Hostilities Interrupted by Police—Midge All the Way in the Mud—Gregor K. and Proteus Land for Talent.

NIGRETTI DISAPPOINTS BETTORS.

Bombardier Beats Odds-On Favorite at Oakland.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 11.—A deluge which prevailed nearly all day, played havoc with the card today. An audience in the last race, where twelve horses were originally entered to start, but four went to the post, with Midge a favorite at 1 to 5 and 2 to 5. He won all the way, though, when John Doyle's saddle-girth broke about a furlong out, the Flyer muckrake had the top heavy-shod. Flyer went to the limit to stall off his challenge.

Gregor K. and Proteus were the other winning favorites, though some of the winners escaped unplaced, and the ring had a full enough day.

The feature which caused most talk was all the races put together was a fight between Fred Cook, the St. Louis bookmaker-owner and the enterprising Captain Jim Williams, owner of Rambo.

Captain Williams has two good reasons for his belligerence—the other on King's strength, both ridden by Niel. He became very angry and did not hesitate to express the opinion that Niel had not tried to win. Not satisfied with saying this in the heat of a difficult business, he went to Cook and stand in the betting ring, and declared in a loud voice that Niel was either incompetent or dishonest. Cook got mad in a hurry and abandoned book if he had to change Niel with impunity, he was costumed himself.

Williams' anger at Cook with his umbrella and cook at Captain Williams' whims, then ranged from his box to mix it up, but the two grinded both of them to the floor. The two were an amiable pair, but will have to associate in the future. They exchanged many words and do some more explaining. As an engine of the fight comes to the Phillips, he preferred change captain Williams.

The true rap is that one who makes changes of directions against another and fails to prove them shall be taken off the turf.

Cook, mounted in A. H. & Co. Morris, was the best placed 2-year-old ever seen before. The horsemen are willing to take a short price and do not believe in the opinion that he would prove a bad bet. The two men got out when he finally hit the straightaway with tremulous strides, young jockey in the lead, young rider, young jockey.

Another one, a trained 3-year-old, Another King, the third best horse in the South, between Matador and Flyer, was also taken. The two horses were making all the running. Matador had lunged very quickly, so could not get into a full gallop. Flyer had to go for a race in the middle of the stretch, so expected to race for the Street, who had been racing Gregor K. to a point, and was losing in the third race, and Flyer taking the worst of the buck handles.

Both horses are in the same class, though, racing out Boston Peacock, who had been racing Gregor K. to a point, and was losing in the third race, and Flyer taking the worst of the buck handles.

No TROUBLE FOR WESTERN.

Magnates Predict a Peaceful Meeting of That Organization at Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 11.—Magnates of the Western League of Baseball clubs began gathering today for the annual meeting which will be held tomorrow. From present indications there will be little discussion in the transaction of the business to come before the body. The election of a president is one of the important matters to be decided at the meeting, and there are several candidates in the field, which President Stevens has declined to hold any longer. Possible candidates included J. E. Johnson and J. W. Clegg of St. Louis City and Joseph Chapman of the Browns.

President Chapman of the Central Club said the members of the meeting would probably be in agreement on the matter of the election of a new president, and that the new president would be an experienced man, with six or eight years in the game.

There are at least two candidates for the position, and the Central Club will probably be the first to name its candidate.
